November 23	ATICANA (Tucuman)	Personal statements: Making it simple to write about yourself	ELF David Williams will talk about "Personal statements: Making it simple to write about yourself". We have noticed at ATICANA, that many adolescents who want to apply to different scholarships, find it difficult to talk about themselves. It's not only a language and structure problem. It's a cultural problem, because adolescents in Argentina don't usually need to write personal statement letters. So, students need to learn how to write about themselves, when they start thinking about their future. What this workshop intends to do, is to give them tools to be better writers. From 11:00 am to 12:30 pm	For more information contact: Gabriela Marotta gabymarotta@gmail.com http://www.aticana.edu.ar
